

Craft Printing's Finalist Graduate of the Year

Craft Printing's John Frazer has been recognised as a finalist in the Lithographic Institute of Australia (LIA) NSW Graduate of the Year Awards.

The LIA. is a non profit organisation consisting of ambitious, progressive, and highly motivated individuals within the Publishing and Communications industry.

They seek to maintain a premium awareness of the leading edge trends and technologies.

The Institute's membership consists of people involved in Design, Advertising, Multimedia, Prepress, Printing, as well as various levels of Management, who most importantly, communicate on a friendly, relaxed, and personal level.

Finalist NSW Graduate of the Year John Frazer (second from left) at the LIA Graduate of the Year Awards presentation evening

The objective of the annual awards is to provide an incentive to Graduates in the Printing and Publishing Industries, including Electronic Publishing, to further their knowledge and skills for the advancement of the Graphic Arts.

John was one of only seven state finalists. He was presented with his award at an LIA dinner held at the Sydney Rowing Club in Abbotsford.

The calibre of candidates for the Graduate of the Year Award was outstanding and we congratulate John on his great achievement.

CRAFT
Printing Pty Ltd

For further information,
please contact:
Max Collins
Craft Printing
T: 02 9353 0289
mcollins@craftprinting.com.au
www.craftprinting.com.au