Magazine tips

Media Eye predicts these magazine categories will lose circulation in the six months to June compared with a year before: Business, current affairs, computer, children's, teen and young women's magazines.

These should gain: Motoring, craft and hobby magazines (which NDD says have now gained hip status), food, wine, lifestyle, entertainment, gardening, health and fitness.

Fashion magazine should hold their own. The big weekly and monthly women's categories will be lucky to do so.
