Annual Galley Club Awards for Excellence

The Galley Club of Sydney has been fostering excellence in publishing for more than 25 years. Each year, the Galley Club of Sydney hosts an annual awards ceremony to present awards for excellence in magazine and book production.

Earlier in July, FPC Magazines attended the 28th Annual Galley Club Awards along with Hannaprint NSW, Offset Alpine Printing and Sinnott Bros. FPC Magazines were short listed in three categories and were the winners of two of these.

Vogue Australia December 2003, the Karl Lagerfeld issue printed by Offset Alpine Printing, was the winner of the category for Periodicals, perfect bound up to 79gsm text stock. Gardening Australia August 2003 printed by Hannaprint NSW won the category for Periodicals, saddle stitched up to 79gsm text stock.

Mark Moes, Production Director of FPC Magazines and Greg Gallen, Account Manager at Hannaprint NSW were both there on the night to accept the award for Gardening Australia. The award won by Vogue Australia was accepted by Michelle O'Brien Production Manager FPC Living and Rebecca Powell, Client Services Representative at Offset Alpine Printing.

The Galley Club describes itself as the link between the publishing and printing industries, providing a forum for ideas exchange on technical and other issues impacting upon them. Through it's active website, development seminars, active social networking events and the Annual Awards for Excellence, The Galley Club continues to provide a valuable and much-needed forum for people working in the publishing and printing arena.
