

GONG RIDE HELPING TO RAISE $1,300,000 FOR PEOPLE WITH MS

For the second year in a row, Hannanprint NSW entered a team in the Sydney to Wollongong bike ride to raise money for MS Australia.

The ride raised a staggering $1.3 million in total, with the Hannanprint NSW team contributing a hefty $10,000 to the cause through sponsorship and raffle ticket sales.

The team of 43 riders came from Hannanprint, Craft Inprint, NDD as well as customer companies and sponsors and all were decked out in the corporate uniform, thanks to the generous contributions of our sponsors.

With 13,000 riders on the road that day, Hannanprint were amongst the top ten largest teams, close behind their friends the Fairfax Flyers.

In addition to those riding, a large team of volunteers turned up to man the Hannanprint food and drink tent, feeding many of the 13,000 riders at the finish line.

The top fundraiser on the team was Michael Martin from Kemenys, with Hannanprint General Manager Tony Dedda, Account Manager Stephen Hannan and Eras Lazanas close behind. Dax Munroe from the Hannanprint NSW press room also deserves special mention. On the day the man who has earned a reputation as being Hannanprint's 'non stop' plumber John Hardy was again unstoppable, being the first in the team to cross the finish line.

Special thanks goes to Hannanprint's sponsors; Trio Packaging, Plunket and Johnson, Muller Martini, Hostman Steinberg, The Good Guys, Brian Fox, Kordia, Stora Enso, Kodak Australasia, Bottcher, Day International, Knab Chemical, Paper Agencies and MAN Ferostaal.

The team hopes to be back again next year for an even bigger effort.
